

Österreichischer Akkreditierungsrat

Balkan – ESG: Survey Results

Vienna, June 2011
Elisabeth Fiorioli

Official Status and Independence

- archaic state regulations
- fast and often change of legal framework
- excessive student involvement
- lack of separate budget line

Organisational Structures and Independence

Organisational structures allow a large scope of action for all agencies :

Independent decision-making: 100%

Design of Processes and Procedures

The advantages of starting at ‚point zero‘

All agencies used international examples to a very large extent.

Common shortcomings can be considered in an early planning stage

Shared views with agencies of other parts of Europe on

Factors to guarantee independence of the panel

Action principles for the quality of the agency's work

Challenges and obstacles

Towards the ESG

Higher education institutions

Agencies

